

Anansi and the Moss-Covered Rock

Part one

Anansi slept and slept and slept and when he finally awoke the sun was shining.

Anansi scratched his head. There could only be one explanation. He must have been asleep for a whole night and a day!

1) Why did Anansi go in search of snake?

2) Where was Lion resting when Anansi found him? Circle your answer:

behind a rock under a bush between the trees

3) Which animal did Anansi take the pineapple from and gobble it up?

4) Why was Anansi delighted on page 4?

5) Do you think the rock is really magical? Explain your answer.

6) The word 'suspicious' is used throughout this part of the story. Tick the closest meaning:

angry scared unsure excited
